Grapple Question:

What if I'm the Only One Saying No?

Kids Learn:

Standing for My Faith

Dig Into the Bible:

Psalms 25:1-5; Daniel 6:1-28; Matthew 12:22-30

Preteens just want to fit in, so the thought of being set apart is scary! But it's important to stand up for things we believe in. Tell your child about a time you took a stand for something you felt strongly about—maybe a co-worker pressured you to fudge on a timecard or you discussed your political views, knowing they were unpopular. Learning that you made it through that tough time will help your child stay firmly rooted the next time his or her faith is tested.
